

Application to Become an Exhibiting Member

In order to exhibit at the Annual Fall Show one must first become a member, then submit an application to the Standards Committee, and present their work in April or June. Once an artist mails or emails in their Standards application, the Membership and Standards Chairs will contact you regarding Standards and answer any questions you have regarding membership. You will also be required to submit a written bio along with 5 photos of work that can be emailed to the Standards chair when requested.

Mediums: Clay, Fiber, Glass, Metal, Leather, Paper, Wood, Stone, Other.

Membership is open to all Alabama residents who are interested in the creation, promotion, and sale of fine and traditional crafts. Membership is not limited to practicing craftsmen, however, members who wish to participate in shows must pass a Standards review for each medium in which they work.
